Our Sunday Gathering!

Welcome! We are thankful you are here this morning! You may pick up your communion emblems on one of the tables and if a 1st time guest please fill out one of the cards and leave it on the table. May you be encouraged as we build each other up in Jesus!

Sermon: We conclude our mini-series on "Peace" today. Jesus issues an interesting command for those whom his disciples should seek as they go out to spread the good news (Luke 10:6). And, among Jesus' first words were "Blessed are the peacemakers..." I look forward to pondering Peace with you from God's word this morning.

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace..." - Paul

Thank you! To our quilters who are again hard at work providing coverings of compassion and love to so many!

Love One Another!

Memory Verse for June— 2nd Corinthians 5:7

Sips from the well - by Doug Clayton

Dads

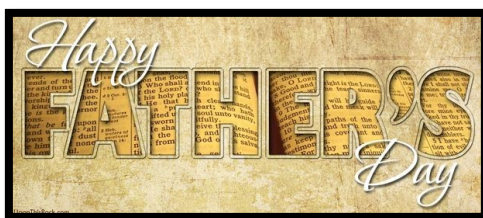

In the beginning God said, "I need someone to teach children to fish, ride a bike and throw a baseball. It must be someone who's tough enough to run a chainsaw yet gentle enough to enjoy a tea party with his little girl and her dolls." So, God made a dad.

"I need someone to check the oil in the car and keep jumper cables in his truck just in case. I need someone to notice the tire tread is wearing and if the weather stripping around the house needs attention. I'll create someone who is strong enough to open a tightly sealed pickle jar and playful enough to let his kids barely beat him at checkers. Yes, he will struggle to find the right words, the correct spot on the shelf for the dishes and how to properly fold the laundry. He will be much less than perfect. But I'll help him along and give him joy in the important things, like wrestling with the kids on the floor, or telling them silly stories and declaring often, 'I'm proud of you.'" So, God made a dad.

God said, "I need someone brave enough to check the dark basement and things that go bump in the night. And I really need someone to remove the dead mouse from the trap and take care of that little spider. I need someone wise enough to know he cannot fix everything or everyone and when to let his child fail. Someone who will hug them, dry their tears and say, 'I love you no matter what! I forgive you! I believe in you!'" So, God made a dad.

"I need someone who is patient and listens more than he talks, who is willing to turn the other cheek and take the high road. I need someone to stand by his family through all of life's seasons, happy and sad, good and bad. I need someone who will lead his family ever closer to my Son and to be an example of faith no matter what." So, God made a dad.

God said, "I need someone to man-up and provide for and protect his family. Someone confident yet humble who does not whine, complain, or criticize. I need someone to gently make unpopular decisions, to be firm but loving and who despite failures will keep seeking and giving grace. I need someone loyal, true and dependable with a kind heart to show them Who I Am, what their Heavenly Father looks like." So, God made a dad.

Thank You!

Dear church family: I just want to thank you for the prayers and thoughts and well wishes, cards and other kindnesses I have received from you all. I am half way through my radiation treatments for breast cancer. They think they removed it all and hopefully this will stop it from returning any time soon! It all has gone well, with little pain or any real negative effects. God is good and has answered all the prayers that have been raised on my behalf. May He bless you all as you continually bless me. I am so grateful that God placed me in such a loving family. Love in Christ, Lila
